CHAP. IV. I While the enemies scoff, Nehemiah prayeth: 7 he setteth a watch.

Ut it came to pass, a that, when D Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren, and the army of Samaria, and faid, What do these feeble Jews? will they + fortify themselves? will Leave to shemfelves. they facrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish, which are burnt?

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he faid, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 Hear, O our God, for we are + despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity;

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7 ¶ But it came to pass that when Sanballat and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerufalem + were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth,

8 And conspired all of them together, to come and to fight against

9 Nevertheless, we made our prayer unto our God, and fet a watch against them day and night, because

10 And Judah faid, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish, so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we comein the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that, when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they faid unto us ten times, From Before all places, whence ye shall return unto us, they will be upon you.

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, c and God had brought their c Job counfel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work. 16 And it came to pass, from that time forth, that the half of my fervants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the fpears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. 17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held 21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears, from the rising of the morning, till the stars appeared.

A Nd there was a great cry of the people, and of their wives, against their brethren the Jews.

2 For there were that faid, We, our fons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

8 And I faid unto them, We, after our ability, have d redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were fold unto the heathen; and will you even fell your brethren? or shall they be fold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

9 Alfo I faid, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk e in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my fervants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you let us leave off this usury.

11 Reftore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive-yards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

12 Then faid they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou fayest. Then I called the priefts, f and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promife, that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.

15 But the former governors that had been before me, were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, befide forty shekels of filver, yea, even their fervants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.

16 Yea alfo, I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my fervants were gathered thither unto the work.

17 Moreover, there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, besides those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

18 Now that which was prepared for me daily, was one ox, and fix choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all forts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

1 Like things happen to good and bad. 4 There is a necessity of death unto men. 7 Comfort is all their portion in this life. 12 Gods providence ruleth over all. 13 Wisdom is better than strength.

Por all this + I confidered in my heart, even to declare all this, a that the righteous, and the wife, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them. 2 6 All things some alike to all: 3. 12, 15. there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that facrificeth, and to him that facrificeth not: as is the good, so is the finner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the fun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men isfull of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 For to him that is joined to all the living, there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die: but 'the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for d the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done un-

1 Feremials imprisonment: 16 his complaint to God. 26 The captivity confirmed. 36 A promise of a gracious return.

THe word that came to feremiah I from the LORD, a in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylons army belieged Jerufalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up b in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judahs house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had flut him up, faying, Wherefore dott thou prophefy, and fay, Thus faith the LORD, 'Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it,

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah fhall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall furely d be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes,

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I vilit him, faith the Lord: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye thall

6 And Jeremiah faid, The word of the Lord came unto me, faying,

7 Behold, Hanameel, the fon of Shallum thine uncle, shall come unto thee, faying, Buy thee my field eteriese that is in Anathoth: for the "right Ruth 4. 4. of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel, mine uncles fon, came to me in the court of the prison, according to the word of the LORD, and faid unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyfelf. Then I knew that this was the word of the Lord.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel, my uncles fon, that was in Anaflor, feven thoth, and weighed him the money, even | feventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I + fubscribed the evidence, and fealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the Before balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and cuitom, and that which was open.

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with e the burnings of thy fathers the former kings which were before thee, f fo thall they burn odows for thee, and E they will lament thee, Jaying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, faith the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet fpake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerufalem,

7 When the king of Babylons army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the Lord, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerufalem, to proclaim a liberty unto them;

9 i That every man should let his man-fervant, and every man his maidfervant, being an Hebrew, or an Hebrewess, go free, that none should ferve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one Before should let his man fervant, and every cir. 190 one his maid-fervant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more; then they obeyed and let them go.

11 But afterwards they turned and dr. 590. caused the servants, and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into fubjection for fervants, and for handmaids.

12 Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the

3 And he brought me thither, and behold, there was a man whose appearance was like the appearance of brafs, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring-reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man faid unto me, d Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and fet thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might thew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou feeft to the house of Israel.

5 And behold, a wall on the outfide of the house round about, and in the mans hand a measuring-reed of fix cubits long, by the cubit, and an hand-breadth: fo he meafured the breadth of the building, one reed, and the height one reed.

6 Then came he unto the gate + which looketh toward the east, and way went up the stairs thereof, and meafured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad, and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits, and the threshold of the gate, by the porch of the gate within, was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof two cubits: and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate, eastward, were three on this tide, and three on that fide; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that fide.

II And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate ten cubits; and the length of the gate thirteen cubits.

12 The + space also before the lit- theb. tle chambers was one cubit on this bound. fide, and the space was one cubit-on that fide; and the little chambers were fix cubits on this fide, and fix cubits on that fide.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of threefcore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

Hen he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north, and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north-door, and the 3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the outer court, was gallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were fhorter: for the galleries | were higher than these, I than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest, and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, towards the outer court, on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And || from under these cham- || or, from bers was || the entry on the east-side, || or, || as one goeth into them from the brought outer court.

10 The chambers were in the Hor, as thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they; and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers, that were toward the fouth, was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 Then said he unto me, The north-chambers, and the fouth-chambers, which are before the feparate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD a shall eat the most holy things: a Levit there shall they lay the most holy things, and be the meat-offering, and be Lev. 24 the fin-offering, and the trefpass- 3, 10, 86 the fin-offering and the trefpass- 3, 10, 86 the fin-offering for the place of the latest th

CHAP. I.

The genealogy of Christ from Abraham to Foseph: 18 his conception and birth: 21, 23 his names with their interpretation.

HE book of the a generation of Jesus Christ, the fon of David, the fon of Abraham.

2 h Abraham begat Isaac, and Isaac begat Jacob, and a Jacob begat Judas and his brethren,

3 And 6 Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar, and Phares begat Efrom, and Efrom begat Aram,

4 And Aram begat Aminadab, and Aminadab begat Naasson, and Naas-

fon begat Salmon,

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab, and Booz begat Obed of Ruth, and Obed begat Jeffe, 6 And 5 Jesse begat David the king, and " David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias, 7 And Solomon begat Reboam, and Reboam begat Abia, and Abia begat Asa,

8 And Asa begat Josaphat, and Josaphat begat Joram, and Joram begat Ozias,

9 And Ozias begat Joatham, and Joatham begat Achaz, and Achaz

begat Ezekias,

10 And k Ezekias begat Manasses, and Manasses begat Amon, and Amon begat Jolias,

11 And | Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, 1 Jechonias begat Salathiel, and Salathiel begat Zorobabel,

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud, and Abiud begat Eliakim, and Eliakim begat Azor, 14 And Azor begat Sadoc, and Sadoc begat Achim, and Achim begat Eliud.

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar, and Eleazar begat Matthan, and Matthan begat Jacob,

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born

Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations, from Abraham to David, are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon, are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ, are fourteen generations.

18 Now the m birth of Jesus The Fifth Christ was on this wife: When as his fore the mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, and before they came together, the was called found with child n of the holy Ghost. Domini.

Anno Dom. 10 And gave them for the potters field, as the Lord appointed me.)

11 And Jefus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him, faying, Art thou the king of the Jews? And Jefus faid unto him, f Thou fayeit.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priefts and elders, s he answered nothing. 13 Then faid Pilate unto him, h Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee? 14 And he answered him to never a word, infomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbasi

17 Therefore, when they were gathered together, Pilate faid unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jefus, which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 When he was fet down on the judgment-feat, his wife fent unto him, faying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have Suffered many things this day, in a dream, because of him.

20 k But the chief priests and el-Ad. 3. 14. ders perfuaded the multitude, that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy lefus.

21 The governor answered and faid unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They faid, Barabbas.

22 Pilate faith unto them, What thalf I do then with lefus, which is called Christ? They all fay unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor faid, Why? what evil hath he done? but they cried out the more, faying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate faw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took 1 water, and washed his hands before the multitude, faying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and faid; " His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucinied.

27 ° Then the foldiers of the gover- Auto Dours nor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole of loke band of foldiers.

45 f Now from the fixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour 8 Jefus cried with a loud voice, faying, Eli, Eli, lamma fabachthani? that is to fay, h My God, my God, why haft thou forfaken me!

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, faid, This man calleth for Elias. 48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a spunge, i and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to fave him.

50 ¶ k Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And behold, 1 the vail of the temple was rent in twain, from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent,

52 And the graves were opened, and many bodies of faints which flept arole,

53 And came out of the graves after his refurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 m Now when the centurion, and they that were with him watching Jefus, faw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, faying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there, (beholding afar off,) " which followed lefus from Galilee, ministring unto him:

56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedees children.

57 P When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus disciple:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jefus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth;

60 And a laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magda-Iene, and the other Mary, fitting over against the sepulchre.
